

The Mediterranean Agenda

Exhibition: "Méditerranée splendide, fragile, vivante"

The aim of the exhibition is to emphasize the biodiversity, but also the vulnerability of the Mediterranean Sea, and to provide ideas for getting involved with simple actions to preserve it as a living, life-enhancing environment.

Start: 20 November 2010 End: 20 May 2012
Location: Musée océanographique de Monaco, Principauté de Monaco
Info: <http://expo.oceano.org/>

Marruecos en Andalucía (II edition)

The "Fundación Tres Culturas del Mediterráneo" and the Moroccan Ministry in charge of communities abroad, will renew their collaboration for the second edition of "Marruecos en Andalucía", and present a program that will include multidisciplinary activities and will run from May to November 2011. This year, the events will not only take place in Seville, but also in Almería, Algeciras, Córdoba, Granada and Málaga.

Start: 11 May 2011 End: 18 November 2011
Location: Seville, Córdoba, Granada, Málaga, Algeciras and Almería, Spain.
Info: <http://www.tresculturas.org/actividadesDetalles.asp?f3cc=-985419389&month=5&year=2011>

Beiteddine Art Festival 2011

The Beiteddine Art Festival is an annual art festival that takes place in Beiteddine, Lebanon. It was established in 1984 with local artistic performances, and then it gradually started having national, and also international relevance. Over the years it has included concerts or performances related to classical music, dance, theatre, opera, jazz and modern world music.

Start: 24 June 2011 End: 5 August 2011
Location: Beiteddine, Lebanon
Info: <http://www.beiteddine.org/>

MEDIT, Festival de Cinema Mediterrani de Ciutadella de Menorca (III edition)

Mèdit, the festival of Mediterranean Cinema, which has now reached its third edition, wants to bring citizens closer to the Mediterranean audiovisual culture. In this new edition, there will be two important news: the introduction of a "Nouvelle Vague" section, and of a section with movies devoted to women, chosen by the "Instituto de la Mujer".

Start: 21 July 2011 End: 25 July 2011
Location: Ciutadella de Menorca, Isle of Menorca, Balearic Islands, Spain.
Info: <http://www.medit.es/>

Learning by doing: is there a future? Euromed Heritage 4 – Workshop on "Apprenticeship"

The workshop on "apprenticeship" is organized in partnership with London Metropolitan University and the Académie Libanaise des Beaux Arts, partners of Mare Nostrum project, which will be hosting the activity. Apprenticeship is somehow devalued on both shores of the Mediterranean, with the result that many skills have disappeared, or are fast disappearing. The workshop will tackle the issues of apprenticeship from the perspective of traditional skills, but it will also explore how it links with socio-economic development.

Start: 28 June 2011 End: 30 June 2011
Location: Beirut, Lebanon
Info: <http://www.euromedheritage.net/intern.cfm?menuID=9&submenuID=&idnews=526>

Multilevel governance in a changing world. Bringing the regions of the Mediterranean closer to citizens

This forum of the Medgovernance project will tackle different themes, the most important of which are: the modernisation of administrative structures and public powers; administrative and political decentralisation to better develop the potentialities of the different territories; territorial cooperation and regional development; bringing the administration closer to citizens.

Start: 7 July 2011 End: 8 July 2011
Location: Barcelona, Spain
Info: <http://www.medgov.net/news/multilevel-governance-changing-world-bringing-regions-mediterranean-closer-citizen>